stuff" in Honolulu, and a letter received by the police department later gave more information. The letter, which came to McDuffie several days ago, is interesting.

"I am taking the liberty to write to you a personal letter to see if you would do something to rid this town of a couple of professional gamblers by the names of Spencer and Slats, who have been preying on poor unfortunates who have the gambling craze, such as my husband and his friends.

"The person Slats, I am informed, is an ex-convict from San Quentin, being sent there for doping a party and then robbing him. He rooms at the Greystone, room B, and I am told that he has all his crooked outfit with him, such as marked eards, drills, quick-silver, loaded dice, etc. "One of the places they usually take their prey to is room 10, New Allangton hotel, on Union street. The room Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., is at the end of the hallway.

"Kindly break up this clique; it may be the means of saving a home. "It will do me good if you catch my husband with the bunch; it may learn

Facts relating to the games in room 10 were communicated to McDuffie previous to the receipt of the letter, and one man reported that on the night of November 9 he watched the game in No. 10 through a transom until 4 o'clock in the morning, a number of soldiers being engaged in play and most of them losing all they had. When Detectives McDuffle, Swift, Kellett, Silva, Anderson and Capt. Baker of the police broke into room 10 at 11 o'clock last night they found eight men around the table. Rubber chips Curbing-bids on 250 ft. stone or conon the table represented 25 cents, $1 and $5 each, the total value of chips in the game being $485, while $40 in cash was taken. A dozen or more decks of cards were on hand.

When Johnson was searched he gave the tip himself that led to the seizure of the rest of his outfit, when he said to one of the detectives, "I know what you are looking for. You Sang On Kee, 1123 Nuuanu; jeweler. are looking for a couple of coins with quicksilver on them."
